A prayer for summertime:

Creator God we thank you for summer time. Whether we stay at home or travel away, help us to find time to slow the pace of our lives and to rest in the cooling shade of your presence. Slow down our restless hearts and renew us and help us to bring comfort, healing and compassion to all we meet.

Here are two websites with prayers for summer and especially for children in our global community for whom this summertime offers only insecurity:

Things you should know about...

News sheet: This is the last news sheet until w/c 7th September when regular news sheets will resume for the autumn.

Amendments to the Additional News Sheet for autumn: The monthly Julian service at St Michael's Breaston is on the first Tuesday each month and the Five in a Bar Concert planned for 19th September has been postponed due to the recent death of the organiser Michael Rayner.

Hopefully we can get the church garden ready for the wedding 🎒 in September. Bring your own tools if possible, if not we can still find you something to do if you just bring yourself. Thankyou in anticipation, Barrie Read (Church Warden).

August Briar Close Service: This will take place on 12th August at 7pm and will now be a Sing-a-long of War Time Songs, in place of our usual service. All are still welcome, but please note there will be no formal service.

Message of Thanks from Jenny and Peter Wallace: We would like to express our heartfelt thanks for the prayers, cards and gifts which Jamie Aldo has received. We have been truly touched by the generosity and support of the All Saints' and St Stephen's church family and feel very blessed to be part of this family.

A message from Mick and Marianne: Thank you to our friends at All Saints' and St Stephen's for keeping us and all our family in your thoughts and prayers, for your cards, comforting words and acts of kindness.
